Headline:
Showery rain soon spreading from northwest, turning heavy at times.

Today:
Best of early brighter spells towards Deeside. Showery rain in Moray at first, soon feeding southeast across Aberdeenshire during the morning. Rather cloudy through the afternoon with showers, these heavy and slow moving at times. Winds light and variable. Maximum temperature 12 deg C (54 deg F).

Tonight:
Rather cloudy with showers frequent for most, perhaps merging to longer periods of rain at times. Light winds turning north to northeast and freshening across the coasts. Minimum temperature 5 deg C (41 deg F).

Tuesday:
Rather cloudy with frequent showers that turn heavy at times. Feeling cool to cold in fresh northeast winds that may be strong over the hills and coasts. Maximum temperature 10 deg C (50 deg F).

Outlook for Wednesday to Friday:
North to northeast flow continuing to feed showers across the area, with the bulk of outbreaks focused across eastern and northern parts.
